LETTER TO HOUSEHOLDS

Dear Parent or Guardian:

Child(ren) need healthy meals/milk to learn. _____, offers healthy meals/milk every school day. Breakfast costs _____; Lunch costs _____; Milk costs _____. Your child(ren) may qualify for free or reduced-price meals or free milk. Reduced-price is $0.30 for breakfast and $0.40 for lunch. To apply for free or reduced-price meals, use the Household Eligibility Application, which is enclosed. We cannot approve an application that is not complete, so be sure to fill out all required information. Return the completed application to:

Name: _____

Address: _____

Telephone: _____

Your child(ren) may qualify for free or reduced-price meals if your household income falls within the Federal Income Guidelines.

For school year 2010-2011 only, the United States Department of Agriculture has provided a waiver from the requirement to include the Federal Income Eligibility Guidelines for reduced price meals on this letter. All households are encouraged to apply for meal or milk benefits. (USDA Authority Section 125(1) of the NSLA)

Here are answers to questions you may have about applying:

- 1. Do I need to fill out an application for each child? No. Complete the application to apply for free or reduced-price meals. Use one Household Eligibility Application for all students in your household per district. We cannot approve an application that is not complete, so be sure to fill out all required information. Return the completed application to person listed above.
- 2. Who can get free meals/milk? Children in households receiving Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) or Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) and most foster children can get free meals regardless of your income. Also, if your household income is within the limits on the Federal Income Chart, your children can get free meals/milk.
- 3. Can homeless, runaway, migrant or Head Start children get free meals? Please call (or contact the school) to see if your child(ren) qualifies, if you have not been informed that they will receive free meals.
- 4. Who can get reduced-price meals? Your children can get low-cost meals if your household income is within the reduced-price limits on the Federal Income Eligibility Guidelines (IEG).
- 5. My child receives SNAP or TANF benefits. The school provided me a letter that stated that my child is eligible for free meals via the Direct Certification Process. Do I need to do anything more to ensure that I receive free meals for my child? No. You do not need to do anything more to receive the free meals. If you do not wish to receive the free meals, you should follow the steps outlined in the letter from the school to notify school personnel immediately.
- 6. My child's application was approved last year. Do I need to fill out another one? Yes. Your child's application is only good for that school year and for the first few days of this school year. You must send in a new application unless the school told you that your child is eligible for the new school year.
- 7. I get Women, Infants, and Children (WIC). Can my child(ren) get free meals? Children in households participating in WIC may be eligible for free or reduced-price meals. Please fill out an application.
- 8. Will the information I give be checked? Yes. We may ask you to send written proof of the information you give.
- 9. If I do not qualify now, may I apply later? Yes. You may apply at any time during the school year.
- 10. What if I disagree with the school's decision about my application? You should talk to school officials. You also may ask for a hearing by calling or writing to the person listed above.
- 11. May I apply if someone in my household is not a U.S. citizen? Yes. You or your child(ren) do not have to be a U.S. citizen to qualify for free or reduced-price meals.
- 12. Who should I include as members of my household? You must include all people living in your household, related or not (such as grandparents, other relatives, or friends). You must include yourself and all children who live with you.
- 13. What if my income is not always the same? List the amount that you normally get. For example, if you normally get $1000 each month, but you missed some work last month and only got $900, put down that you get $1000 per month. If you normally get overtime, include it, but not if you get it only sometimes.
- 14. We are in the military. Do we include our housing allowance as income? If your housing is part of the Military Housing Privatization Initiative, do not include your housing allowance as income. All other allowances must be included in your gross income.
- 15. My spouse is deployed to a combat zone. Is her combat pay counted as income? No. If the combat pay is received in addition to her basic pay because of her deployment and it wasn't received before she was deployed, combat pay is not counted as income. Contact your school for more information.
- 16. My family needs more help. Are there other programs we might apply for? To find out how to apply for SNAP, TANF or other assistance benefits, contact your local Department of Human Services office or call (800) 843-6154 (voice) or (800) 447-6404 (TTY).

Sincerely,

Enclosure

Privacy Act Statement: This explains how we will use the information you give us.

The Richard B. Russell National School Lunch Act requires the information on this application. You do not have to give the information, but if you do not, we cannot approve your child for free or reduced-price meals. You must include the social security number of the adult household member who signs the application. The social security number is not required when you apply on behalf of a foster child or you list a Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) Program, or Food Distribution Program on Indian Reservations (FDPIR) case number or other FDPIR identifier for your child or when you indicate the adult household member signing the application does not have a social security number. We will use your information to determine if your child is eligible for free or reduced-price meals, and for administration and enforcement of the lunch and breakfast programs. We MAY share your eligibility information with education, health, and nutrition programs to help them evaluate, fund, or determine benefits for their programs, auditors for program reviews, and law enforcement officials to help them look into violations of program rules.
