Members are required to attend all rehearsals and performances. Students involved in other GMS activities will be excused as necessary, but cannot abuse this privilege. Band members should arrange their schedules accordingly.

Excused absences will include the following: illness, family emergency, and approved GMS school activity. Absences will only be considered excused when a note explaining the absence, signed by a parent or guardian, is presented to Mr. Woods in a timely manner.

Unexcused absences will result in a lowering of overall grade and may lead to possible dismissal from the band.
