The Cool Tool for this week:
Goal Setting

"A goal is not always meant to be reached; it often serves simply as something to aim at." –Bruce Lee

2nd Quarter Skill Focus:
Homework Completion- students need to turn in their homework

HERE ARE TODAY'S ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Girls basketball plays their last home game of the regular season tonight against Norwood. We will also recognize the 8th grade players before their game. Start time is 4:30pm.
- Boys basketball will start their season tonight as they travel to St. Phil's. Game time is 5:30pm. We will have a brief pep assembly this afternoon to introduce the teams and wish them luck on their season.
- The next open gym for volleyball will be on Tuesday, November 15th from 3:00-4:30 pm. Open gyms are not required, but are strongly encouraged for those interested in trying out!
- Volleyball tryouts will be held on Tuesday, November 29th and Wednesday, November 30th from 3:00-5:00 pm. Those interested in trying out for the team must attend both tryouts. If you have any questions, please see Mrs. Lehr or Mrs. Maize. You must have a current physical on file in order to participate.
- The 2nd quarter skill focus is homework completion. There is a link between homework and academic achievement. The time you spend on doing homework will develop more than academic skills alone.
- Homework encourages you to use your time wisely, work independently and engage better with the subject matter. It will also improve your memory and critical thinking.
- "Out of 27 guesses for the book in a jar, 14 were correct, plus Mr. Brown. The Book in the Jar was I Survived the American Revolution, 1776. Winners randomly chosen from those 14 were Peyton Rast, Alex West, Analiegh Vanderwerf, Declan Kelly, and Beckham Torres. Congratulations winners, and be on the lookout for a new book in the jar soon!"
- Happy Birthday Today to Makenna Rauhaus.
