HERE ARE TODAY’S ANNOUNCEMENTS

- From the President of the United States: Today is National Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day and we honor the memories of the 2,403 service members and civilians whose lives were cut short on that tragic December morning. We reflect on the resilience of America’s Armed Forces, who withstood the attack and built the most capable fighting force the world has ever known. In the wake of tragedy, these brave women and men — the Greatest Generation — answered the call to defend freedom, justice, and democracy across the Pacific, throughout Europe, and around the globe. Today, we carry forward their spirit of unity and their enduring resolve to protect the United States against those who seek to do us harm.
- Boys basketball take on Norwood tonight at home. Game time is 4:30pm. For tonight’s game, you can donate a canned good for entry instead of paying $1.
- All of December, we will be having holiday-themed spirit days! Tomorrow’s theme is “Ornament Day.” Wear your brightest colors and shine like an ornament.
- The Canned Food Drive is underway! Remember, food drive items should be taken to your homeroom each morning. Student Council members will collect the items each day and tally each homeroom’s points. Every non-perishable food item you bring in earns your homeroom class ONE point, but there are also bonus food items each day. Every bonus item you bring in on the correct day is worth FIVE points. Help those in need... participate in the annual Canned Food Drive! Tomorrow’s bonus item is Boxed Potatoes. Also, if you bring a canned food item donation to the boys basketball game tonight, you will not have to pay admission to watch the game!
- Grab your red and green attire and join Student Council at the Holiday Dance THIS FRIDAY in the GMS gym! The dance will be held from 6:00-7:30 pm, and admission is $1.00. All 4th through 8th grade students are invited to join in the fun and have a holly jolly good time!!!
- Happy Birthday today to Abigail Hasty.
