DISCUSSION ITEMS
Board Convention Updates-
Mrs. Lindsay reported that everyone has successfully registered for the Board Convention. Confirmation has not yet been received.

1% County Facility Sales Tax-
Mrs. Lindsay reported that this is a tax that is voted on by local voters. If approved, one cent is added to every dollar of qualifying retail purchases. Exempt from the tax are groceries, medicine and vehicles. Funds may be used for the facility upkeep, school health, safety and security upgrades. Distribution is made based on the enrollment of the school district.

26-27 Enrollment Projections-
Mrs. Lindsay shared with the Board the enrollment projections for 26-27 school year. Projected enrollment for next school year is 378 for kindergarten through 8^{th} grade.

Facility Updates-
Mrs. Lindsay informed the Board:

- The garage at Marquette is under construction, should be done before the start of school.
- Illini will replace water heater at Marquette and repair tile at Georgetowne.
- A neighbor to Rogers was provided with the required notice regarding the demolition of the garage at Rogers. Scheduling of the demolition is TBD.
- The replacement of the cafeteria tables at Marquette has been moved to winter break due to concerns that production and shipping would not meet our summer deadline.

Other Items as Presented by the Superintendent-
Mrs. Lindsay informed the Board that she is in conversation with Tazewell County Special Education and looking at options of partnering with them for transportation. The attorney will be drawing up an agreement.

Mrs. Lindsay informed the Board that the new busses were delivered on Monday.
